Chloe Frame
Vice President

Hi! I'm Chloe and I'm so excited to be your Vice President this year! I'm originally from San Antonio, Texas and got my undergraduate degree in neuroscience with a minor in criminology from UT Dallas. Being that Health Law is so broad, I personally took the cognitive route and was able to work at the Public Defender's Office this summer, specifically with the Mental Health Court. Even if you're not interested in health law, there's so much to learn in law school and I hope we can support you with that process!

Breanne Bittick
President

Hi! My name is Breanne Bittick, and I'm so excited to serve as your President this year! I'm from Austin, Texas, and I played collegiate soccer at Angelo State University. I earned both my Marketing degree and MBA before coming to law school, and I'm very passionate about health law—especially medical malpractice and personal injury. We have a ton of exciting events planned for this year, and we can't wait to see you there. If you have any questions or ever need support, please don't hesitate to reach out!

WHAT IS HEALTH LAW?

Health law is a broad and dynamic area of legal practice that focuses on the rules, policies, and regulations shaping healthcare. It covers everything from protecting patient rights and ensuring access to care, to addressing medical malpractice, personal injury, hospital operations, public health, and mental health initiatives. Because healthcare touches everyone, health law blends litigation, compliance, policy, and advocacy – making it one of the most impactful and far-reaching fields of law.
